SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Recruiting

Sponsoring this event will provide you access to over three hundred plus innovative and technically - adept Students. You will be given the resume and contact information of all participating students. Regardless of your level of sponsorship, your logo will be on all marketing materials, and you can send advertising materials, and you can send advertising swag for attendees. Finally, For the Silver, Gold, and Title Sponsor Tiers, you may send recruiters to talk with students during the event.

Product Feedback

Having your product or API be used by dozen of teams at Hack-Nocturne can provide your company with substantial feedback from the developer's point of view. We welcome you to send the mentors to help hackers get acquainted with your product and to receive real-time feedback during the event.

Earmarked Sponsorship

As a sponsor you may earmark funds for a specific purpose. For example, if you provide hardware or software at the hackathon, you may set aside funds to award the best hack that utilizes your equipment. Or, for additional exposure, you might sponsor a midnight snack or a meal. We are happy to work with you to find the right area in which to spend your sponsored funds.

If you have a specific idea in mind, please contact us at contact@hack-nocturne.in. The opportunities available are not limited to those outlined, and we are happy to accommodate.
